
Silverfox Global Ltd

Silverfox Global Ltd was established in 2002 by Paul and Chris Challenger as a family company providing online travel guides to New Zealand. In the following years we have established an extensive range of travel services and products including travelgear shops, travel guides and services such as travel bookings, insurance and visas. Our main operations are run from Leeds in the United Kingdom. Our different brands cater for the variety of travellers including families, backpackers, gappers and independents. All our team are passionate about travel and are always happy to pass on their knowledge and advice.:: Head Office Silverfox Global Ltd
